

Dr Ibrahim Ulman is a professor of pediatric surgery, working in Ege University İzmir, Turkey, as the head of pediatric surgery department and chief of urology division. He is the former president of Turkish Association for Spina Bifida, and The Society for Pediatric Urology in Turkey. He is currently on the executive board of Hypospadias International Society as the president elect. He published over 130 scientific articles and book chapters. He organized many national and international scientific courses and workshops. He is invited as a lecturer and as a visiting professor to perform live surgery to different centers internationally.