

Grahame Smith holds the position of Head of the Department of Paediatric Urology at The Childrens Hospital at Westmead. He is Program Director of Surgery and Anaesthesia at the Childrens Hospital at Westmead.

He studied medicine at Sydney University. He has Fellowships in Paediatric Surgery and Urology from the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons and a Pediatric Urology Fellowship from the Childrens Hospital in Philadelphia.

His interests include evidenced based medicine, quality improvement, hypospadias, vesicoureteral reflux and posterior urethral valves.